

EYES OF HAWAII MEETING MINUTES
JANUARY 28, 2019
KALAEPOHAKU ROOM
ST. LOUIS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The meeting was called to order by President Milton Hee at 7:02 pm.

He expressed thanks to Wendell Leong for finding and sponsoring us for the meeting room. Also, thanks to Wendell, Paulette and AJ for actively looking for a meeting place.

A slide show by Karen Hutton in Slovenia was shown.

Congratulations to Eddie Freeman who pass the FAA tests and obtained his drone license.

Club teeshirts are available from Mike Loke.

Thank you to Rita and her elves for putting on a fabulous Christmas party. We need a chairperson and location for the 2019 Christmas Party.

Guests were asked to introduce themselves. They included David Foster, Dick and Susan Foard, Cherise Lansing, Seth Yoshioka Maxwell, Jim McGovern, Carl M.

Cisco Martin Del Campo, Honolulu Botanical Gardens, is looking for pictures to put on their volunteer appreciation gifts. While they would like any pictures of the gardens, they are specifically looking for pictures that show their logo. Check the website under Request for Photographers for more details.

Up coming Night in Chinatown on February 2nd from 8:00 am to 9:30pm.

Ryan Sakamoto will be teaching a hands on workshop about low key boudoir photography at Hawaii Camera on Feb 2nd from 6:30 - 9pm. Cost is $45. Bring your camera.

Koko Crater Photowalk will be on Saturday, February 16th at 9:30 am.

Krystle Marcellus a future speaker, is having a Chinatown Street

Photography Shoot and Walk on Tuesday, February 19 from 4:30pm to 6:30 pm. Meet at Kekaulike Market. Cost is $10. See the EOH website under New Activities and click on the Attend Button if you want to attend.

The KCC Tech fair will be on April 6th from noon to 3pm. Librarian Joy Oehlers has a room and is asking for light painting demonstrations. Gary Nakanishi and Lani Wright agreed to be responsible for this. Also, AJ agreed lead the photowalks.

The theme presentation, 'Your Best of 2018,' was shown. Thank you to Shannon. Next month's theme will be 'Red and Love' done by Chris Chin, who will be leaving for Squim, Washington in April.

Kainalu Kamai will be deploying to Afghanistan in March. Stay safe and don't forget to put a slide show together when you return.

Suggested we invite Jamm Aquino to speak about photographing the great white sharks as appeared recently in the Star Advertiser.

Reminder by Laura Gerwitz that members should plan to submit 8 x 10 samples of photos at the March 25th meeting for the Library Exhibit. Any topic is acceptable, but must be suitable for young children who visit the library.

Elyse Bojorquez, Head Graphic Designer for Pictures Plus, spoke about their ability to print on metal, canvas, and paper. Turn around is 7 – 10 days.