

EYES OF HAWAII MEETING MINUTES
OCTOBER 22, 2018
Kapiolani Community College Student Cafeteria

The meeting was called to order by President Milton Hee at 7:05 pm.

Chris Chin shared her slide show 'E Kuu Morning Dew.' Most photos were taken at Diamond Head Gardens in the early morning.

Treasurer's Report – Rita Kaku reported we have 118 members and a current bank balance of $8,899.43.

Rita reminded that the Eyes Christmas Party on Saturday, December 1, will start at 5 pm. There will be three hot entrees and cost $46/person. Payment must be received by the end of the next meeting.

Hawaii Paralegal Association's (HPA) is seeking a volunteer photographer for their 40th anniversary dinner at Kapiolani Community College Ka'Ikena Restaurant on Friday, October 26, 5:30pm.

Thank you to all participants of the Kahe Pt Beach Park Sunset Shoot and a big mahalo to Eddie and Susan Freeman for hosting our potluck afterwards. Eddie shared slides of that evening taken with his drone.

Food Photography Workshop - Saturday, Nov 10th, 9:30am, Wahiawa Botanical Gardens. Luther Chong will prepare Sweet Sour Spare Ribs, Pressure cooked Candied Portuguese sausage, and pork hash with pineapple gravy over E-mein and veggies, Coleslaw with barbeque chicken and avocado. Please bring a dish to share for potluck to follow class.

White Tern Photo walk - Sunday, October 28th - 9am - 10am Royal Hawaiian Center - Rich has arranged an exclusive walk for EOH photographers. Meet at the Royal Grove Stage at 9:00am.

Library Exhibit - May 2019 - Laura Gerwitz has found library staff to manage the exhibit.

Celia Doo shared our monthly theme slide show - "Up a Tree."
Robert Moore agreed to do a workshop on light painting.

Lincoln Ishii, a senior helicopter pilot for the Honolulu Fire Dept, shared his drone and GoPro photos.