

EYES OF HAWAII MEETING MINUTES
June 24, 2019
Kalaepohaku Room, St. Louis Alumni Association Clubhouse

Milton Hee called the meeting to order at 7:04pm

Officer elections were held tonight because Rita Kaku was unable to be at th meeting tonight due to work commitments and is unwilling to run for re-election. Election results are as follows:

Milton Hee - President

AJ Jaeger - Vice-President

Recording Secretary - Wilma Namumnart

Corresponding Secretary - Cyndy Knudsen

Treasurer - Don Rostow

Thank you Don for volunteering for the position of Treasurer... so that our meetings may continue.

At the suggestion of Luther, the EOH Officers have decided to waive Kainalu's membership dues while he is on deployment.

Thank you to Karen Ahn for setting up the Photo shoot at Makua Valley Military Reservation. It was quite an eye opener for all who went. There may be a possibility of a sunset shot in the valley at a later date.

Dwight Okumoto (PPH), Terry Takaki - Photo Swap Meet at Washington Middle School on Sunday, July 21st, 2019 from 9am to 2pm. Professional Photographers of Hawaii will be providing a table or two for EOH members to display their images (8" x 10") and to sell any photographic equipment they may want to off-load. Dwight also mentioned that there will be someone there who will be swapping/selling records.

Upcoming Photoshoots:

Saturday, June 29, 10:00am: EOH has been invited to shoot at the Kahaluu Gardens and Gallery, 47-754 Lamaula Road, Kaneohe, HI - 10 minutes away from Valley of the Temples.. The owners of these gardens and gallery are amongst the best artists in Hawaii. See the website for more details.

Saturday, July 20 and Sunday July 21 starting at 9am: Prince Lot Hula Festival will be on the Iolani Palace Grounds.

Of potential interest:

June 27 at 7:30pm; June 29 at 1pm; and June 30 at 4pm: "Leaving Home, Coming Home: A Portrait of Robert Frank" is a feature-length documentary, completed in 2004, about the legendary Swiss-American photographer and filmmaker. At Doris Duke Theatre, Honolulu Museum of Art.

Sept 15 - Dec 6, 2019: “Francis Haar: Disappearing Honolulu” is a project undertaken by Francis Haar in the mid to late 1960s. Haar’s photographs and film are valuable documents of a not so distant past that capture one of Honolulu’s diverse, multicultural communities in the midst of urban displacement – themes that remain relevant today as Honolulu undergoes another period of transformation. At the John Young Museum of Art, UH Manoa

The June theme slide show, “Primary Colors” was created and shared by Chris Chin.

Next Month’s Theme: TBD... or possibly “Old Hawaii”; “Proud to be an American”. Selvyn Chan to create slide show.

Guest Speaker: Leslie Gleim is a EOH member who has a passion for aerial photography from helicopters and who recently won Gold Award in the Nature Aerial category at the Moscow International Foto Awards and a Gold Award in PX3 2019 Competition in the Prix De La Photographie Paris. Leslie showed her current works of the recent volcanic activity on the Island of Hawaii.

Selvyn Chan also brought a Pentax 110 film camera that was manufactured in 1970. The camera is in good condition and comes with a case, a lens, filters, flash holder and a manual (written in Japanese). He is selling it for a friend and is willing to accept any amount offered in the form of a check that has been written out to UH Polynesia. The money will be donated to that organization

Meeting adjourned 8:20pm
